

Statement of participation

Daniel Bradford

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Intermediate German: Understanding spoken German

This free 6-hour course encouraged improvement in German speaking skills.

Issue date: 12 April 2020

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/languages/intermediate-german-understanding-spoken-german/content-section-0>

COURSE CODE: L113_1

Intermediate German: Understanding spoken German

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/languages/intermediate-german-understanding-spoken-german/content-section-0>

Course summary

This free course, Intermediate German: Understanding spoken German, is aimed at intermediate learners of German with an interest in language and culture. The six-hour-course is designed to develop your understanding of spoken German through video portraits of people in the German cities of Hamburg and Passau. It introduces you to naturally spoken language, and gives clear advice on how to use video resources as a useful and enjoyable learning tool. Through completing varied activities you will improve your understanding and active use of the language, and develop the confidence to access further resources and take your German studies to a higher level.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- develop strategies for understanding video resources in German
- understand German spoken at natural speed
- understand and give personal information in German
- use knowledge of other languages and cultures to decode and recognise spoken German.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

Learning from authentic audio-visual materials

Section 2

Understanding what you hear without subtitles

Section 3

Using subtitles for your learning

Section 4

Using the images to support understanding

Section 5

Using video to extend your language

Section 6

Using a transcript

Section 7

Consolidation

Section 8

Conclusion